GOODEVENTS

GOODEVENTS

The Goodevents team will be bringing functions, events & weddings to life in our unique space, each with their own contemporary yet traditional aesthetic.

Our in-house team of experts will guide you through each step as they bring your event to life through styling, timings, catering. With your own personal event manager, you will have a seamless service for an event to remember.

Our food and drink offerings at Newport Market are designed to suit a variety of event styles, with the option to alternatively cater yourself in our industrial kitchens.

Whatever your celebrating we can work with you to make it an event to remember!
